

Navajo Lake State Park San Juan River

The San Juan River below Navajo Dam is one of the country's premier trout fishing waters. A three and one-half mile section of the river has been designated "quality waters" with special angling regulations in effect. Refer to New Mexico's Fishing Proclamation before fishing the San Juan River.

☒ Pay Station